

ETCHED STONES

Your First Step To Discovery

A project is emerging in our community that weaves together conservation, education, tourism, and economic development – the Wildcat Glades Conservation & Audubon Center. In partnership with the City of Joplin and the Missouri Department of Conservation, the nature center and its hands-on programming will connect people to the beautiful natural resources of our region.

Located near Shoal Creek in Wildcat Park, the Audubon Center will feature three classrooms and a large seminar hall for school and community use. Also included will be interactive exhibits with a large collared lizard terrarium and a spectacular aquarium that interprets our region's natural features. Visitors will enjoy beautiful gardens and landscaping along with a network of nature trails.

You can showcase your support and contribution by purchasing a stone that will be permanently placed in the walkways and patios around the Audubon Center. The stone will be etched in black with your name or company logo. The inscription can be up to three lines of copy and up to 15 letters per line. Thank you for taking your first step in making this project a reality.

The etched personalized stones are available in three sizes. (Please circle)
